What is the Orange Standard?

The Standards Framework aims to help foster a shared understanding of what it means to provide culturally appropriate, high-quality protection and prevention services to children, youth and families; and aims to promote leading and innovative practices in Child and Family Well-Being.

Nijaansinaanik's Board of Directors and Chiefs of the First Nations served have placed the highest expectation on successful engagement and input from each First Nation.

The Orange Standard process is - Communications, Consultation, Coordination and Cultural Integrity.

The Orange Standard will bring back our traditional ways and teachings of our people that were lost upon contact.

Joyce Tabobondung - Head Elder, Nijaansinaanik Child and Family Services
